WOMEN AT ODDS OVER CLUB HOME

Two Prominent Organizations Object to Mrs. Henry Clark Coe's Use of Their Names in Connection with Plan for Club-House - Individuals Approve.

In spite of the printed circulars to the effect that the Woman's University Ciub and he Woman's Club are affiliated with the movement to build a woman's club-house in this city, presidents of both these organizations deny that such is the case and have requested that the names of the two clubs, but the stock which sations they represent be used no longer.

Just how the names of the two clubs each individual because in the stock which shares each individual because in the stock which shares each individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individual because it is now being issued must be an individua
